

Department of Art & Art History Articulation Agreement

University of Utah, College of Fine Arts &
Salt Lake Community College, School of Arts, Communication & Media

This Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of the last signature date below by and between the Visual Art & Design Department at Salt Lake Community College, a body politic and corporate of the State of Utah and a public institution of higher education and the Department of Art & Art History at the University of Utah, a body politic and corporate of the State of Utah and a public institution of higher education. The purpose of this Agreement is to articulate the terms of collaboration between the Department of Art & Art History at the University of Utah (UU) and the Visual Art & Design Department (VAD) at Salt Lake Community College (SLCC) that will begin July 31, 2019, all as more specifically described herein.

The Department of Art & Art History at the University of Utah and the Visual Art & Design Department in the School of Arts, Communication & Media at SLCC agree to the articulation of transfer credit as outlined in this agreement.

This articulation is specific only to students that have completed the Graphic Communications AS degree requirements at SLCC. Completion of the following courses at SLCC will guarantee 3rd year status in the Graphic Design BFA program at the University of Utah. This agreement is contingent upon acceptance into the University of Utah and enrollment in Art 3130 Drawing 1 and DESGR 2600 History of Graphic Design courses during the first year of transfer at the University of Utah. Students that have not fulfilled the requirements for the AS degree will be considered on a case by case basis through review of transcripts and portfolio.

This agreement will be reviewed annually. Renewal will be contingent on the outcome of these reviews. This agreement will remain in effect unless terminated in writing by either institution.

Liability

Both Salt Lake Community College and the University of Utah are governmental entities under the Governmental Immunity Act, §63G-7-101 to -904 (2011), as amended (the "Act"). Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein, there are no indemnity obligations between these parties. Subject to and consistent with the terms of the Act, each party shall be liable only for its own negligent acts or omissions or those of its employees, officers, and agents while engaged in the performance of the obligations under this Agreement, and neither party shall have any liability whatsoever for any negligent act or omission of the other party, its employees, officers, or agents. Neither party waives any defenses or limits of liability available under the Act and other applicable law. Each party carries insurance through the State Risk Manager of the State of Utah up to the limits required by the State Risk Manager of the State of Utah and applicable law. Nothing in this Agreement shall require either party to carry different or additional insurance. It is not the intent of either party to incur by contract any liability for the operations, acts, or omissions of the other party or any third party and nothing in this Agreement shall be so interpreted or construed. In the event of any conflict, inconsistency, or discrepancy between the provisions of this paragraph and any other provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this paragraph of the Agreement shall govern.
