

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This is a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") entered into by University of Utah ("University") and Salt Lake Community College ("SLCC") This MOU sets forth an agreement between the University and SLCC whereby the University will provide certain English and/or Communications courses for SLCC students which are to be taught on SLCC campuses.

RECITALS

- A. The University of Utah's Continuing Education Program, in an effort to increase enrollment in the University's Department of Writing & Rhetoric Students, desires to have University faculty instruct students, currently enrolled at SLCC, in two Writing courses.
- B. SLCC, in an effort to promote learning opportunities to its students at no cost to the students, desires to support the University's academic program by providing classroom space on various SLCC campus.
- C. Given that both the University and SLCC's endeavor to support this academic effort, the parties, through this MOU, hereby agree to set forth each party's respective rights and responsibilities as well as the general requirements of this cooperative effort.

AGREEMENT

It is hereby Agreed by the University of Utah and Salt Lake Community College to the following:

1. The University will provide faculty instruction for two Writing courses entitled "Write4U (WRTG 3020)" and "Writing Across Locations (WRTG 3030)". It will be the University's responsibility to provide all salary, benefits and other compensation to the faculty providing instructions for these courses.
2. SLCC will provide to the University one classroom per semester at the SLCC campus where the University intends to offer the class. The SLCC campuses where these courses will be offered will be at the Redwood, South City and Jordan campuses. The University will advise SLCC of its intention to provide the course on a particular campus at least ninety (90) days prior to the beginning of the semester that the course will be offered.
3. The University will be responsible for the registration of students, issuance of grades and credits for the course, and all other administrative record keeping and requirements related to the course.
4. The University will pay all student tuition for these courses either through grant and/or scholarship and students will not be required to pay any tuition.
5. SLCC, which normal charges students a standard space fee of $30 per credit per student, will waive the imposition of the fee on all students taking the courses within the scope of this agreement.

6. SLCC will provide any equipment necessary for the instruction of these courses provided that University's request is reasonable and that reasonable notice is provided.
7. University will give students credit for the courses within in the scope of this agreement provided that the students enroll full time in the University's Writing and Rhetoric program. Credit for successful completion of these courses will not be issued for a student enrolling at any other college.
8. University shall be responsible for providing Worker's Compensation Insurance for faculty who teach these courses. Meanwhile, both University and SLCC will provide liability insurance for this program under the State of Utah Risk Management Fund.
9. SLCC, provided adequate funding exists, will aid University in recruiting students for this program through the use of student email, electronic bulletin boards, posters, flyers and faculty advisor referrals.
10. University shall provide UNID number for all students participating in this program so students can access a range of University's services and privileges (e.g. library lending, writing center consultations and online course content, etc.)
11. The term of this MOU shall be five (5) years, however either party may terminate this MOU without cause provided that the other party is given ninety (90) days notice. In the event that the MOU is terminated, both University and SLCC will work cooperatively to ensure that students enrolled in a course at the time of the termination will be able to complete the course they are currently enrolled it. The parties may renew this MOU for one additional five (5) year term.
12. This MOU is entered into this 28 day of November, 2017.

SALT LAKE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

By: Stephen Ruffus
Title: Associate Dean, English

Signature: _____

Date: _____

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

By: Jay Jordan
Title: Department Chair, Writing and Rhetoric Studies

Signature: _____

Date: 11.29.17