The Economics Department in CSBS at the University of Utah (UU) intends to provide scholarships for outstanding transfer students, pending budgetary constraints, and commits to six $500 scholarships per academic year for eligible students for a time period of three years, with the understanding that SLCC and Econ (UU) will revisit the issue after this three-year trial period.

This Agreement will be reviewed annually. Renewal will be contingent on the outcome of these reviews. This Agreement will remain in effect unless terminated in writing by either institution.

Liability

Both Salt Lake Community College and the University of Utah are governmental entities under the Governmental Immunity Act, §§ 63G-7-101 to -904 (2011), as amended (the "Act"). Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein, there are no indemnity obligations between these parties. Subject to and consistent with the terms of the Act, each party shall be liable only for its own negligent acts or omissions or those of its employees, officers, and agents while engaged in the performance of the obligations under this Agreement, and neither party shall have any liability whatsoever for any negligent act or omission of the other party, its employees, officers, or agents. Neither party waives any defenses or limits of liability available under the Act and other applicable law. Both parties maintain all privileges, immunities, and other rights granted by the Act and other applicable law. Each party carries insurance through the State Risk Manager of the State of Utah up to the limits required by the State Risk Manager of the State of Utah and applicable law. Nothing in this Agreement shall require either party to carry different or additional insurance. It is not the intent of either party to incur by contract any liability for the operations, acts, or omissions of the other party or any third party and nothing in this Agreement shall be so interpreted or construed. In the event of any conflict, inconsistency or discrepancy between the provisions of this paragraph and any other provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this paragraph of the Agreement shall govern.
